#SundayGunday: Taurus Raging Hunter

Taurus USA is best known for making self-defense and concealed-carry handguns, including the famed Judge. The new Raging Hunter in .44 Magnum shows the company's other side—the one dedicated to making handguns for hunting. It's a hefty six-shot wheelgun with a large, stainless steel frame and an 8³/₈-inch, ported barrel covered by a full-length shroud. A crisp single-action trigger pull of 4½ pounds helps with accuracy, and the comfort factors built into the Raging Hunter make you look forward to practicing with it. Although “raging” is in its name, this is a handgun that will make many hunters happy with its features and performance. Learn more about it in the video embedded above, hosted by Executive Editor Adam Heggenstaller. MSRP: $919; taurususa.com.
